DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-3, 5-14 and 18 drawn to an apparatus that measures electrical characteristic of an electrical element within semiconductor devices in a packaged state, classified in class 324, subclass 765.
- II. Claim 4, drawn to an apparatus that measures electrical characteristic of an electrical element within semiconductor devices in a packaged state, classified in class 438, subclass 15.
- III. Claims 15-17 and 19, drawn to a method of measuring electrical characteristic of an electrical element within semiconductor devices in a packaged state, classified in class 324, subclass 73.1.

Inventions I-II in first set and III in second set are related as apparatus and method of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the method for using the apparatus as claimed can be practiced with another materially different apparatus or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used in a materially different method of using that apparatus (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the method for using the apparatus as claimed can be practiced with another materially different apparatus, such as different apparatus of first set (see claims 1, 4 or 9).

Inventions I and II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed i.e. NMOS transistor's as claimed. The subcombination has separate utility such as control switch.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

A telephone call was made to Mr. Springer on 02/03/2004 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
